The Sightmark® series of reflex sights are designed to create a lightweight, yet accurate, sight. The Ultra Shot™ is Sightmark's biggest and baddest sight in the reflex line, while still being incredibly lightweight for its size. Perfect for shotguns or rifles, the Ultra Shot comes with a built-in, integrated Weaver mount, which fits all standard bases, and is able to withstand heavy recoil calibers. This, with the ability to choose between 4 different reticle patterns, makes the Ultra Shot an unusually versatile sight. With a wider field of view than any other reflex sight on the market, and a Limited Lifetime Warranty, the Sightmark Ultra Shot is literally in a class by itself!
